

4 questions to ask yourself when you are in a questionable human interaction (you are unsure) sexual and otherwise. How should we conduct ourselves going forward.

- 1) What do I want to get out of the situation?.....am I being selfish again?
- 2) Is it possible (even remotely) that I am wrong. I am usually never wrong.....right?? This makes me a better listener.
- 3) How will this affect the people around me as well as the one I am interacting with?
This is a new way of thinking.....how will this affect people OTHER than little old me??!!
- 4) Have I asked The Power Greater than myself for help, guidance and the strength to do the right thing?
Do I then listen for an answer?
